1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-16 and 20 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Allen.

Allen teaches a hitch having the structure as claimed. The device includes a base 50, which supports a jaw, a jaw (the forward end of pawl 74), a biasing member 82, a release mechanism (the rearward end of pawl 74) and a foot step 90.

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/22/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. It is noted that the text of the rejection has been changed slightly in view of the amendments to the claims. The rearward end of pawl 74 is now considered to comprise the release mechanism. This member is "configured to pivot relative to the base and configured to apply upward force to the jaw assembly" as claimed.

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3611

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
